What is the Life Sciences and Healthcare Council?

Our mission is to provide a space for life science and healthcare property leadership to engage in industry wide challenges, share local and global best practices and provide a voice to the industry in the wider property & local community context. The Life Science & Healthcare Council (LSHC) has a particular interest in educating the wider market about its industry, but also to engage in issues that are common to the public and private sectors and to both for-profit and not-for-profit property operators, developers, financial investors and strategic owners.

The Council will cover all aspects of property and its place within the wider life science and healthcare industry. This includes property from start-up incubation space, scale space, corporate occupation, academia-led development and through to significant government investment in hospitals or research facilities.

Life Sciences and Healthcare Council

What is the Life Sciences and Healthcare Council?

Sector or topic specific forums where industry leaders meet, exchange ideas, share best practices and foster thought leadership in their specific sector of the real estate market.

Consisting of a genuinely international and multi-disciplinary membership, the Councils provide a unique platform to learn from peers in the same sector who are operating in different geographical markets, as well as help shape the future of pan-European real estate.

Feedback from members tells us that these meetings add value by facilitating a rich, open dialogue for industry leaders which is topical, provocative and future thinking. They aim to take down professional barriers to allow a free exchange of ideas and experience, and help careers by enabling members to steer their ideas and develop true friendships over time across a range of professions.

Membership of each Council is capped at a maximum of 50 people to ensure the quality of personal interaction between participants. The Councils meet in person twice a year, once in February to coincide with the ULI Europe Conference and in the second half of the year. Councils are now also holding up to four virtual meetings a year.
