What is the Retail and Entertainment Council?

Retail and entertainment is one of the most innovative and diverse sectors of the real estate industry. From shopping centres, high street shops and out of town retail parks to restaurants, cinemas and concert venues, the Retail and Entertainment Council examines all aspects of ownership and operation.

Set against a backdrop of global retail and entertainment brands, the council’s membership and content programme reflects the fact that the sector transcends geographical boundaries. As well as examining best practice in Europe, the council draws ideas from both established and emerging markets to provide members with a clear insight of the market.

MESSAGES FROM ULI LEADERS

“Being a member of a Product Council gives you the rare opportunity to openly, frankly but confidentially debate the keys issues affecting the industry area you cover with other senior market players.”

Am I eligible to join?

To join a Product Council, you need to be a full member of ULI. If your membership is through a corporate package with your company, we are happy to check if you can be added to the company’s roster.

How do I join?

There is a short approval process, with approval by the chair. In the first instance please send a short bio or CV with your Council preference to Louisa Batts, Louisa.Batts@uli.org.

Costs

The annual fee for membership of a Product Council is €380.
