About ULI
The Urban Land Institute (ULI) is a non-profit research and education organisation supported by its members. Founded in Chicago in 1936, the institute now has almost 40,000 members worldwide, representing the entire spectrum of land use and real estate development disciplines, working in private enterprise and public service.

A multidisciplinary real estate forum, ULI facilitates an open exchange of ideas, information, and experience among industry leaders and policy makers dedicated to creating better places.

Members say we provide information they can trust, and that ULI is a place where leaders come to grow professionally and personally through sharing, mentoring, and problem solving. With pride, ULI members commit to the best in land use policy and practice.

ULI has been active in Europe since the early 1990s and today we have over 2,600 members across 27 different countries. We have a particularly strong presence in the major European real estate markets of the UK, Germany, France and the Netherlands but are also active in emerging markets such as Turkey and Poland.

What are the benefits of ULI membership for young professionals?
ULI membership provides access to future and current industry leaders. ULI also convenes a dedicated Young Leader group offering a calendar of events specifically tailored for young professionals under 35.

All Young Leaders benefit from a 50% reduction in annual dues for Full and Associate membership. When you join ULI, you receive access to a wide array of online resources, publications, and opportunities, including:
